FIFTEEN CENTS

Injunction denied Village, Levas both declare court wins

by LISA WILKIE

The issue of paraphernalia is not quite a dead one in the Village of Antioch, even though Federal Judge George N. Leighton handed down a decision in regard to a legal suit filed on behalf of Pete and Ernie Levas, owners of Levas T-Shirt Etc. on Main St. in Antioch. The store carries t-shirts, novelty items and until recently, smoking utensils.

Levas filed suit against the village, the police chief, and the village trustees late in March, and in the meantime has sought a preliminary injunction that would allow his store to continue offering for sale items that were barred from the village under a paraphernalia ordinance passed by the village board, Jan. 21.

Attorneys appeared in U.S. District Court in Chicago on April 16 arguing the preliminary injunction, the judge took the case under advisement and said a ruling would be made by April 28, and then ruled on the case in the village's behalf on April 22.

AS BOTH THE village and the Levas' get more deeply involved in the case, it seems the whole issue becomes more confusing. The confusion is made worse by the fact that attorneys for both the village and Levas interpret the recent ruling on the preliminary injunction in two totally different ways.

Michael Nash, a Chicago attorney arguing the case for the village, contends that in the decision handed down by Leighton denying a preliminary injunction, was also a statement upholding the ordinance. "The judge found that the case bears no similarity to others found constitutionally deficient, and that the ordinance was not enforced on a selective basis," Nash stated.

MAYOR MICHAEL HALEY stated that Leighton found the ordinance constitutional, that it was not vague, and that Levas' rights were not violated. He also said that as far as he was concerned, the case was closed. "Levas could appeal, but I have no idea what he'll do, you're (news reporter) the one that talks to him, not me."

Michael Pritzker, attorney for Levas, maintained that the statements made by the mayor and Nash were false. "How can a decision be made on the constitutionality of the ordinance when that wasn't the issue at the trial?" he said. "In fact, attached to this preliminary injunction decision was the Parma, Ohio decision that states that officers (police) have to have actual knowledge of the intent of the use of a pipe before making a paraphernalia arrest." Pritzker also contends, basing his thoughts on the Parma case, that Levas could put his pipes back into his store right now and not be arrested for it. "The decision made by Judge Leighton says that. Police have to be able to prove intent before making an arrest."

ANTIOCH'S VILLAGE attorney, Andy Lynch, explained that the judge read a decision of an hour and a half, that did uphold the constitutionality of the ordinance. "The ordinance is constitutional. If Levas were to put pipes back in his shop, he would certainly be arrested," Lynch said.

The paraphernalia ordinance defines drug paraphernalia as "all equipment, products and materials of any kind which are used, intended for use, or designed for use in planting, propagating, cultivating, growing, harvesting, manufacturing, ...ingesting, inhaling, or otherwise introducing into the human body a controlled substance."

LEVAS CONTENDS that in singling out his business as one that sells drug paraphernalia, his rights have been violated and his business has suffered. "One cannot tell what a pipe bought in my store will be used for,"

Kelly resigns, Antioch Savings promotes two

Thomas J. Kelly, president of the Antioch Savings & Loan Assn., has announced his resignation from the Antioch financial institution, effective April 30. Kelly has accepted a position with the First Bank of Will County in Lockport, a mutual savings and loan company.

Kelly's announcement came as a surprise at a recent board of director's meeting. He will be unable to remain on the board of directors at Antioch Savings because of federal regulations, but he has assured the association of his help for a smooth transition.

Kelly's acceptance of the executive vice president position at the Lockport bank located southwest of Chicago, led him to announce the promotion of Mark T. McKinney to executive vice president and managing officer of the Antioch association.

MCKINNEY, A LIFE-LONG resident of Antioch, received a bachelor's degree in accounting from Whitewater University and joined the Savings & Loan in 1974. He has progressed from assistant treasurer, to treasurer/secretary, to the present appointment. He is an active member of the Lions Club, and is currently serving as vice president of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

In other announcements, the board of directors elected Laddie Korecek assistant vice president. Korecek has been employed by Antioch Savings for two years as director of public relations. He will be assuming full management responsibility of the new branch office that will be located in the Harbor Ridge area.

KORECEK RECEIVED a BA degree in business management and a BS degree in Economics from Elmhurst College. He is active in the Antioch Lions Club, the Antioch Chamber, and the Fox Lake Rotary.

In further action, the board of directors elected Harold E. Collins president of the association. Collins, an attorney, who also serves as vice chairman of the board and chairman of the executive committee, stated that Kelly's departure from the organization comes on very amiable terms, and that the position at the Antioch bank is still open to him if he wishes to return in the near future.

Collins also stated his pleasure in the promotion of McKinney, and has confidence

Memorial activities planned

It's parade time in Antioch with the Antioch American Legion Post 748 making plans for the annual Memorial Day parade to be held May 26.

The parade will leave Antioch High School at 1 p.m., and will culminate with services at the Antioch Village Hall.

According to Jim Ferrier, commander of the post, there have been some big parades in the past, and anyone interested in participating in the parade should phone him at 395-2631.

Rotary program brings Matti to Antioch

The Antioch Rotary Club, as do other Rotary Clubs throughout the free world, is taking part each year in the youth exchange program. Through this program, youth from all over the world get a chance to be exchange students in the country of their choice.

According to Wayne Parthun, youth exchange officer, the Antioch club participates in both the inbound, students seeking host families in the United States, and the outbound, students wishing to go abroad, programs, and for the last four years have enjoyed success both placing Antioch youth and receiving outsiders into the community.

This year, Finland native Matti Laurila has been living and studying in Antioch, and for two weeks in April, his parents had the unique opportunity to join him and tour the northeastern part of the U.S.

"WE WENT TO Washington D.C., Virginia and came back through southern Canada," stated Matti's father Simo in broken, but understandable English. Both he and his wife, Raili, remarked on the beauty of the country, especially in the Appalachian Mountains. "Much of the land is similar to Finland, but we have nothing like the mountains," Mrs. Laurila noted.

Both of Matti's parents work in the field of medicine, his father being an obstetrician, his mother, a nurse. Both found their visit to the U.S. a wonderful experience, but more than they expected. "Everyone is so friendly here," Mrs. Laurila said of the people she had met while touring. "People are very kind," she added.

In comparing the U.S. to Finland politically, Mr. Laurila summed up his feelings in a brief speech to the Rotary at its weekly luncheon. He said, "From the beginning of its history, the United States has had democratic systems which the Finns are accustomed to respect. When your president of today emphasizes the importance of personal freedom among all people of the world, I know that most Finns, including and especially myself, are deeply moved."

MATTI, WHO WILL be returning to his home in July, has enjoyed his stay in the U.S., but is not hesitant in pointing out the differences in the education system between the two countries. "The United States teaches more of its own history, while in Finland, we learn more about the rest of the world. We are required in Finland to take much harder courses than here," Matti said.

Matti took all grade levels of studies while at Antioch High School, but when he returns to Finland he will be a junior. He isn't sure if he will be pursuing higher education, or if he does, what he will be pursuing. "I have two more years to decide if I want to go onto school," Matti said. "It is much harder to get accepted into colleges in Finland," he added.

THREE FAMILIES IN Antioch, the Jim Hamlins, the Dick Paddocks and the Bill Durells, opened their homes to Matti during his stay in the United States. "The object is to let the student learn as many different things about the family setting and meet as many people as possible," stated Parthun. And, according to Matti, each stay has been great. "All my families are wonderful," he said.

He pointed out that he is enjoying many things about his visit, but especially likes, yes, Big Macs and tv. "We have only two channels of television and they are state owned. Tv runs for only about seven hours a day in Finland, so I have enjoyed watching American tv. I never had a Big Mac before, and I love them!" the 17 year old laughed.

IN COMPARING weather and geography between the U.S. and Finland, Matti pointed out that Finland has the most lakes in the world, 60,000. "There are many forests and trees, and the country is mostly hilly. In traveling east, we went through some parts of the country that were totally flat. There's nothing like that in Finland," he said.

"Finland does not yet have the pollution that the U.S. has, and the weather is mostly the same. Summers are a bit cooler and shorter, and we have the midnight sun in the northern part of our country."

"Buildings in the U.S. are well preserved. In Finland we let our houses get old and then build new ones. You take pride in keeping the old ones."

Matti added that the average income in Finland is less than that in the U.S., but people do just as well in his country. He also said that the Finns mostly heat with oil, gas is $2.80 a gallon and rising, and movies are just becoming popular. "It is expensive to go to movies, but I think people are going more now."

MATTI LIVES IN Lohja, 30 miles west of Helsinki in southern Finland, and has a sister, Riitta, 19, and a brother, Olli, 13. He plans to return to Finland and study hard. He has been active playing chess and in the United Methodist Church of Antioch youth group during his visit. "I will miss my stay here and also tv," he smiled.

According to Parthun, this time of the year is when prospective exchange students

Among guests at the event will be Lisa Mayer, who chose the name of the school, Lake County School Supt. Bill Thompson, a representative from the state board of education and the honored guest, William C. Petty.

After an address from Petty, there will be refreshments and tours of the new building.

The festivities will begin in the school library.

Scotch Lads to perform at mental health cotillion

The date for the 15th Annual Antioch Mental Health Cotillion is set for May 31 at the Abbey on Lake Geneva according to Mrs. Ray Lorenz, chairman of the event. Cocktails will be held outdoors as last year. A prime rib dinner will be served, followed by dancing to the music of The Scotch Lads.

The proceeds from the Cotillion and from the Thrift

Shop at 921 Main St. will all go to help the retarded children and young adults of Lake County.

Mrs. Ed Vos reported at the April 21 meeting of the Antioch Mental Health Assn. that $3,000 had been given to the Riverside Foundation at Lincolnshire, a facility for young retarded adults.

Mrs. Robert Lubkeman, president of the association said that Mrs. Vos will soon have a room at Grove School named in her honor. Mrs. Vos was instrumental in starting the Antioch Mental Health Assn. and also the Thrift Shop. Her dedication and hard work have been an inspiration to all the members and volunteers at the shop.

Fire termed 'suspicious'

A brisk south wind may have been the main reason a fire at the Porthole Bar in Antioch burned as long as it did, according to Wayne Parthun, investigator for the Antioch Fire Department.

According to Parthun, the fire, that was reported at 1 a.m., was of a suspicious origin. There were three points of ignition in the building located on Elmtree Rd. off Grass Lake Rd. Those points included the south end, the northwest corner and the north side of the building. "The south entrance was completely destroyed, and the bar area was damaged badly," Parthun said.

Although there was some construction going on in the building, it was determined that the fire was unrelated to that.

The building was owned by a Palatine man, and is repairable.

The largest bird in the Western Hemisphere is the Rhea, a South American relative of the ostrich. It has a long feathered neck, long feathered legs and three toes on each foot.

Conservation Club donates trees

The Northern Illinois Conservation Club donated trees to Antioch area schools which were planted on April 22 in observation of Arbor Day.

According to Mary Ann Kaht, NICC member, trees were planted at Grass Lake, Emmons and St. Peter's Grade Schools and also at the Antioch Upper Grade. "The club has done this in the past, but it is not an annual event," Mrs. Kaht said.

A variety of types of trees were donated, and according to Mrs. Kaht, the club takes part in the activity to show the value and need for the protection of nature.

"The eighth grades at St. Peter's and Grass Lake assisted in the planting, while the sixth grades at Grass Lake and Emmons were also on hand at their respective schools," Mrs. Kaht said.

Arbor Day was first observed in 1887, and in 1949, a statute in Illinois was adopted stating that Arbor Day would be observed the last Friday in April.

Emmons updates accounting

The Emmons Grade school board of education reorganized on April 14 and elected officers before holding its regular board meeting. Elected president for the 1980-81 year was Richard Becker, while Susan Schneider was elected secretary. The board also decided to keep the present meeting time, which is the second Monday of each month for the year.

At the regular meeting, the board approved the purchase of speakers for the school's gymnasium replacing the portable sound system the school currently uses.

Also, according to Supt. John Kakacek, the board will be in attendance at Antioch High School when all boards that feed into the high school district will meet.

The board also announced that the school's bookkeeping system will be updated to follow state guidelines. The new system will make information more easily accessible, which, according to Kakacek, is more of a benefit to larger school systems.

Squares to 'hula'

The T-P Taws and Paws will hold their next dance on May 2, located at the Kenosha Womens Club in downtown Kenosha. The club hall is at 6028 8th Ave. Sheridan Rd. Dancing will be from 8-10:30 p.m., and Hawaiian dress may be worn in place of square dance outfits.

Ted Palmen, club caller, will be calling the squares. Round dances will be called by Betty and Jerry. Mainstream and quarterly selections are called at these dances.

The club dances on the first Friday of the month in Kenosha and the third Friday at 22112 121st St. Lake Shangri-La Woodlands, Lake Shangri-La Community Club hall. On the third Friday there is a fish fry beginning at 6 p.m., with steak or chicken also on the menu. There is also a workshop for round dancing held before the dance on these nights.

For further information or directions, please call 312-244-2116 or 414-857-2513.

School signup slated

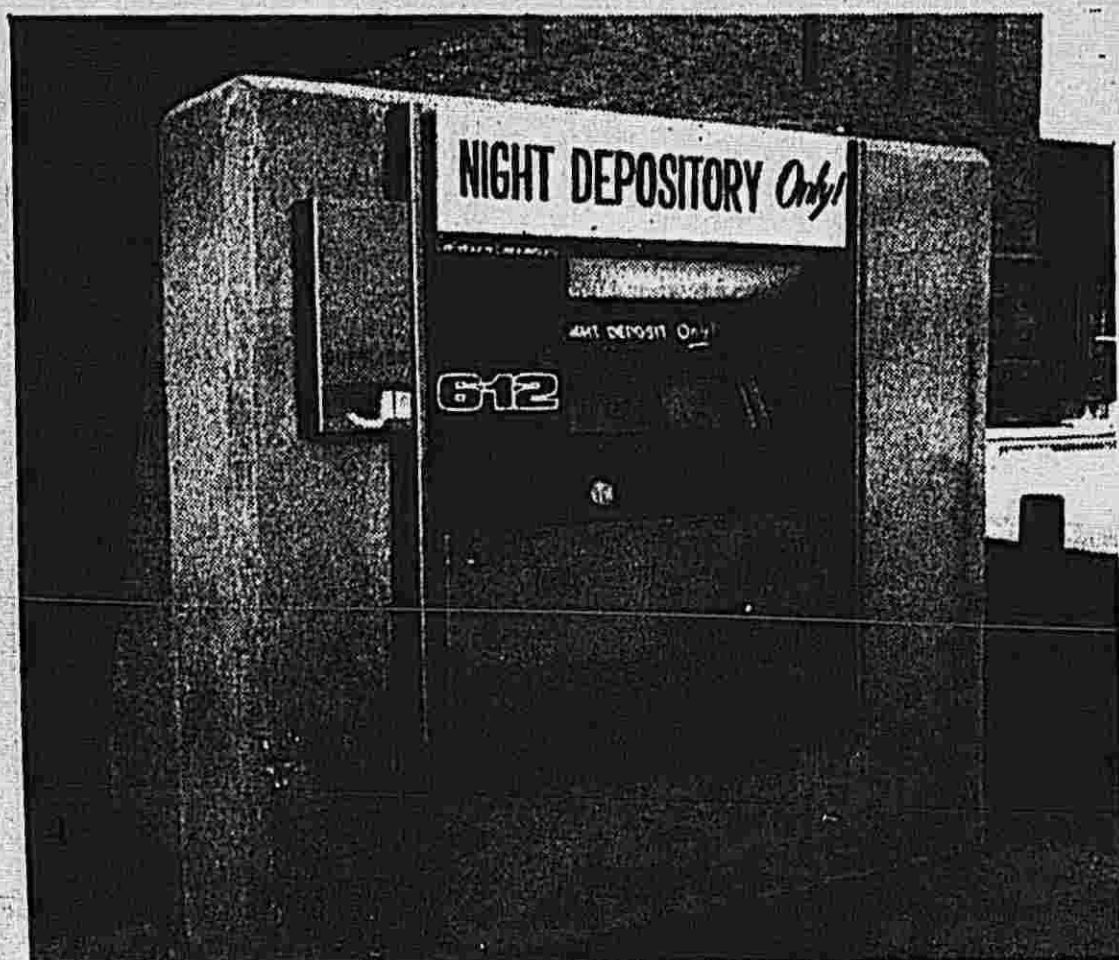

Kindergarten registration for the 1980-81 school year will be held at Antioch Grade School, W.C. Petty School and the Oakland Grade from 9 a.m.- 1 p.m., April 30 through May 2 at each of the schools.

To be eligible to enroll in kindergarten, a child must be five years old on or before Dec. 1, 1980.

Women to hear review

The United Methodist Women of Antioch will be hosting a book review and tea at 1:30 p.m., Saturday, May 10 in Wesley Hall at the Methodist Church in Antioch.

The book, "The Last of the Saddle Tramps" an adventure story by Mesannie Wilkins, will be reviewed by Mrs. J. Arthur Sterrett.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

I was just so sorry to hear that Tommy Kelly and his family will be leaving Antioch soon. Mr. Kelly has accepted a different job in Lockport and will be giving up his post at the Antioch Savings & Loan Assn. He's such a great guy. He always would tell me what was going on in Rotary, and sometimes if I happened to stop in at Rotary, I would poke him in the elbow to keep him awake while the guest was speaking. I guess I won't be the only one to miss him—all his friends are going to have a hard time finding a substitute for his understanding nature when they decide to invite him out at all hours of the morning. Anyway, I wish him loads of luck, and I wish Mark McKinney and Laddie over at the S&L luck with trying to fill his shoes. Wonder if bank execs can wear athletic socks in Lockport?

Lots of Rotary news this week. Homer White and Wayne Parthun have been awarded Paul Harris medals, and to be able to have one of those, a person must contribute $1,000. Club members surprised Wayne by contributing the money for him because of his continuous donation of time to the youth exchange program. Wayne was so surprised that he was literally speechless—something that, if you know him, is quite unusual.

Rotary hosted an open house for Matti Laurila, a Finnish exchange student taking advantage of the international youth exchange program on April 24. Matti's parents were able to join him for two weeks in the United States, and were at the open house held at the Methodist Church in Antioch.

Speaking of the Methodist Church, there will be a tea and book review held at 1:30 p.m. on Sunday, May 10 in Wesley Hall. There will be a donation of $2, and an adventure book will be reviewed.

McHappy Day was termed a pretty good success by promoter Chris Kellogg, despite the crummy weather last Sunday. Almost 500 Big Macs were sold, and a total of $185 was given to Antioch Parks. Everyone had a real good time—I guess Cricket the Clown was great with his balloon tricks, and Dave Kelly was the best with his magic tricks. Mayor Mike sure enjoyed his Big Mac, Warren Polley turned out Coca-colas in full force, and village treasurer Shirley Gutowski can have a job any time she needs one behind the counter in Antioch. Don't ever let Glenda near the ice cream machine again, though! Also, I guess the fire and rescue men were the greatest as they let children look at the department's equipment. Chamber secretary Dixie also shared in the fun.

Speaking of Dixie, she told me that the Chamber office will be getting a new phone system starting April 30. There will be two new red "hot lines" installed, to make it easier to get through to her with your questions, thoughts and ideas. Dixie's so thrilled that she gave me the numbers: 395-2233 and 2234. I know sometimes when I tried to get a hold of her, it was almost impossible because the line was busy sometimes.

Antioch High School is readying for the junior prom that will be held May 17 at Interlaken in Lake Geneva. Stopped in over there the other day, and there is always so much going on for those kids. Sure hope they appreciate how hard the school officials work for them.

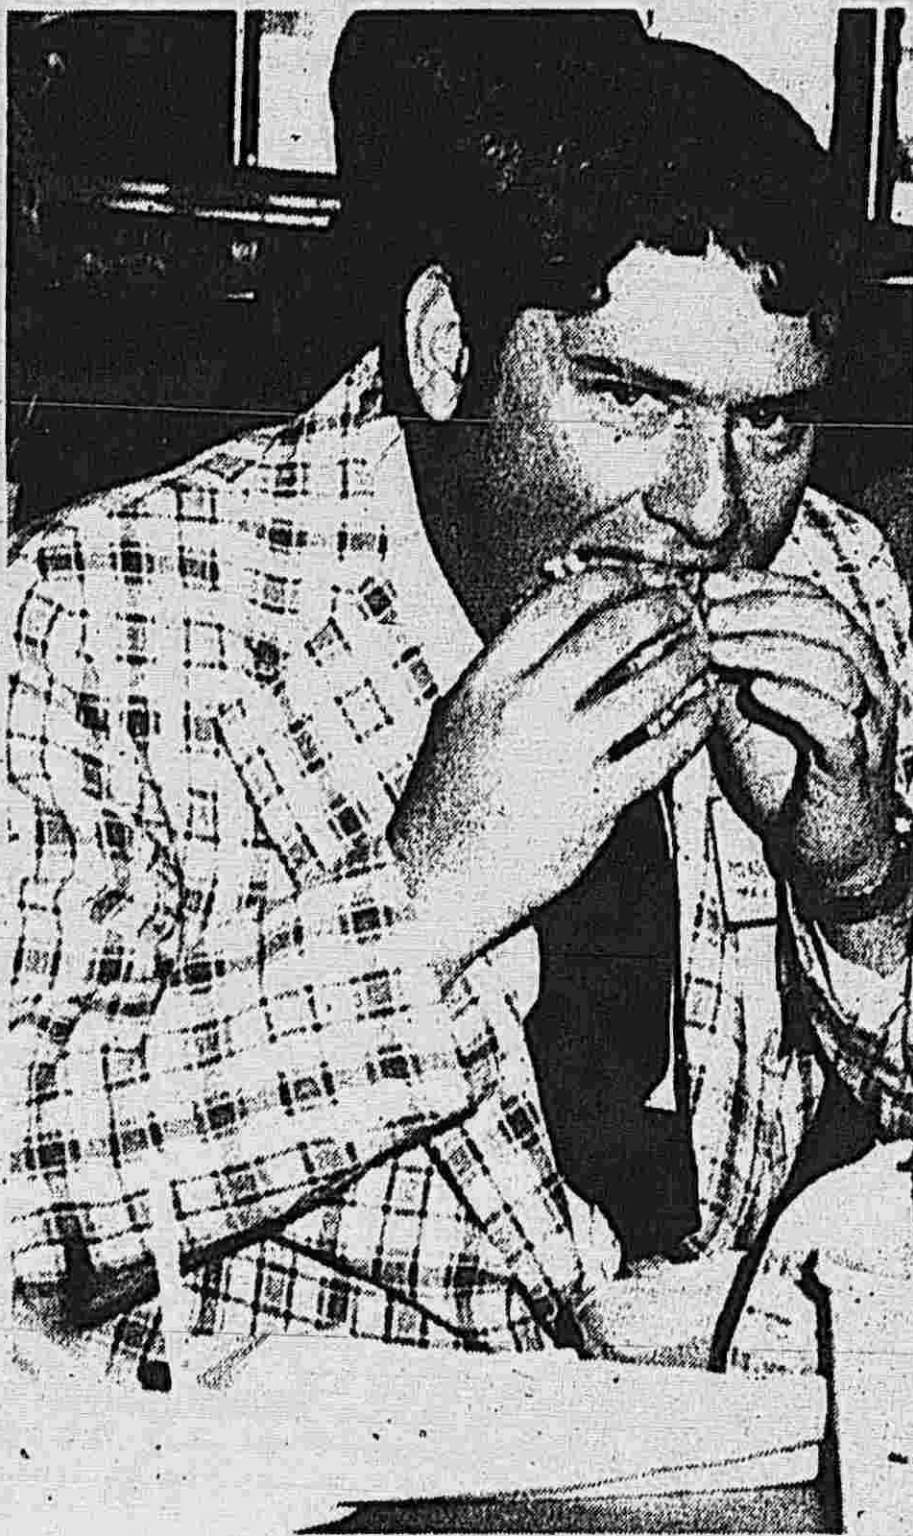

Also coming up will be the spring concert featuring both choir and band music in a combined effort of the Grass Lake and Emmons Grade Schools. That will be on May 14 at 7:30 p.m. at Grass Lake School.

Another event that should be fun and is for a real worthwhile cause is the bowling for autism sponsored by the newly formed Antioch Jaycettes. That fun event will be held at Antioch Bowl on Sunday, May 18 starting at 9 a.m. The Jaycettes would welcome any new members—at least that's what Mary Schaub, an active member tells me.

Don't forget to go to the W.C. Petty Grade School to honor Mr. Petty at the open house scheduled for 2 p.m. May 4.

Also, don't forget to have any junk you want to have picked up out between Monday and Wednesday May 5-7. Pickups will be east of Main St. and north of Depot on Monday; south of Depot and Orchard Sts., Tuesday; and west of Main and north of Orchard Sts., Wednesday.

Happy birthday Dee Lang! Everyone's favorite park and rec coordinator celebrates on May 4.

MAYOR MIKE

LAW DAY

Law Day is May 1. A reminder that justice relies on a responsive judicial system. To keep our judicial system responsive, citizens must urge and support local efforts for court improvements to reduce trial delays and cut case backlogs.

Get better wishes go out to Vi of Vi's Yellow Bird who is recovering from an accident and also to Rosa Gros Klaus, manager of Senter's Car and Truck Plaza Restaurant in Columbia Hospital in Milwaukee.

Bill Brook should be just about ready to get rid of his crutches after a little patch up on his knee. Isn't it always that once you can start having fun with the darn things, you have to give them up?

Sure am glad to see that the Antioch Police are working real hard. Why, the other night I was out walking my poodle, and a car went by so fast, I could hardly believe my eyes. Anyway, a patrolman was quick on the scene, pulled over the car, and told them to slow down. I think I recognized the officer as Mr. Metz, but I'm not sure. A tip of my hat to the fella!

Don't forget kids, to have your short essay on why you think your mother is the greatest in to your teacher or the Antioch Chamber of Commerce by May 1. You sure could make mom a happy person and win some prizes in the meantime.

HOST BREAKFAST — New Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry members Carol and Ron Akins, will host a breakfast for all new Chamber members at their new business, the Windjammer. New restaurant is located on Rte. 173 about two miles west of Rte. 59. Akins' have had much combined experience in restaurant business, currently live in Waukegan. Chamber breakfast will be held at 8 a.m., May 6. There is possibility of 30 new members attending. — Photo by Lisa Wilkie.

should go through the process of being accepted for the program.

"A student must file an application which the local club will review. Then the committee within the club will set up a personal interview with the student. If students get through this process, they and their parents are then referred to the district program for an interview. Then the application is circulated in the country they wish to go to," Parthun explained.

PARTHUN, WHO WILL be serving as chairman for the exchange program for the 44 Rotary Clubs in the district this year, also pointed out some other considerations. "Students applying should be in the upper 25 percent of their class and should be willing to be away for a year." He also said that the financial responsibility of the trip is up to the family sending the student. "A $200 revolving expense account must be maintained in the country the student visits," he said. "The local Rotary will pay approximately $500 for registration and district fees," he added.

Interested students also have the opportunity to learn about the world outlook by attending conferences before departing for the country they wish to live in. Two Antioch girls will be traveling abroad this year. Juniors Chris Quinn will be going to Brazil, and Beth Kromer will be traveling to Japan. Both will leave in August and return to the U.S. in July of next year.

THE ROTARY CLUB is responsible for finding homes for inbound students. They must try to choose a compatible setting and also must maintain a $35 expense account.

"The program is highly successful," Parthun said. "People have chosen the Rotary's exchange program over other exchange programs," he added.

Parthun estimated the number using the Rotary program in the thousands.

Gallaher receives fourth

Kerri Gallaher, a senior at Antioch High School, has participated in various competitions through the business department at ACHS, and her hard work has paid off through her placing in national competition.

Miss Gallaher, who plans to major in accounting in college, has taken part, through the office education class at ACHS, in local, state and now national competition in accounting. National competition was held over the weekend of April 18 at Minneapolis, and the 18 year old placed fourth in the nation.

"It is hard to compete in these things," Miss Gallaher said. "You never know what will be included in the tests at the competition."

THE TESTS ARE written, and the only way to study for them is just to keep steadily working at accounting. One thing that has helped her is her one-year employment at the accounting firm of James Hamlin in Antioch. "I've really had a great opportunity to learn there," she said.

Doug Johnson, Miss Gallaher's accounting teacher and also chairman of the business department at ACHS, pointed out that the funds used to give these students the chance to participate in the competitions, are obtained through the school district.

Grass Lake board elects

At the reorganization meeting of the Grass Lake School board of education, John Steitz was elected president while Mary Beth Walsh was chosen secretary. The results of the April 12 election were certified.

At the regular meeting held following the election of officers, the board appointed William Nauman as school treasurer, and also made plans to attend the annual board of education dinner to be held at Antioch High School.

The board approved a contract for Stephen Bartlett as a physical education instructor for the 1980-81 year. Also, the board approved an increase in Supt. Richard Hogan's mileage allowance.

Bids open for Grass Lake Rd. light

The Illinois Department of Transportation (DOT) opened bids on Friday, April 25, for various transportation improvement projects throughout the state. Estimated value of the total work is $112 million.

Some 20 projects, valued at $39 million, originally scheduled for the bid opening have been postponed until the federal government releases funds to cover the cost of the work.

One project on the DOT list is furnishing and installing traffic signals at the intersection of Grass Lake Rd. and Rte. 59.

50 YEARS AGO: MAY 1, 1930

Either a band of robbers or a hard-working thief putting in non-union hours caused no end of excitement in Antioch Wednesday morning when the depredations of the night before became known. At least four places were either entered or "looked over", but the one real loss sustained was by Andrew Dalgaard, Main St., from whom $35 in cash was obtained when the thief carried off his trousers from the living room of his home.

Facing even death itself to be loyal to his master, Jerry, the watchdog at Antioch Packing plant, who, by his barking, warned residents that the building was on fire, has been declared eligible for consideration in the award of the Spratt's Dog Hero medal, it was learned here today.

Miss Agnes Bienfang, who has been department editor and feature writer for the Antioch News since last July, has resigned her position to return to school at Wisconsin University. Replacing her is Arthur Downs of Crystal Falls, Mich.

Antioch Volunteer Fire Department will hold a barn dance Saturday evening, May 17, in the large barn recently built on the Albert Horton farm. Mr. Horton, grateful to the local firefighters for the service rendered last year, has invited the firemen to hold this dance in his new barn, and he hopes a goodly sum will be added to the fire department.

Vincent Dupre, building contractor of Antioch, was declared winner over Bob Smart, stockman, also of Antioch, after three rounds of boxing in the Antioch Palace arena Friday night.

Manager Nels Nelson of the Pikeville baseball team, has announced that the team seeks games with other teams in this locality. Next Sunday Pikeville will play the North Chicago Giants at Pikeville.

30 YEARS AGO: APRIL 27, 1950

Rains which fell Saturday, Sunday and Monday of this week were responsible for a great deal of trouble and in some instance much actual loss, but like the ill wind, the rain proved a godsend to the weary members of the Antioch Fire department who had answered more than twenty calls during the past two weeks.

Members of the cast for the play "Little Women" are working hard to complete the work in time for the dates, May 4 and 5. The play will be presented by the senior class at Antioch Township High School.

Selection of Benno Freund and Gordon Wells as winners in the section at a meeting at McHenry last Saturday. The local boys won on the showing made by their project work. Benno Freund placed first in the dairy production and Gordon Wells placed first in the corn production division.

Antioch reached its goal in the Red Cross drive for the first time in many years, William Brook, treasurer, said, yesterday. With $900 as this community's share of Lake County contribution, the fund went over the top this week.

10 YEARS AGO: April 30, 1970

Melvin Stillson is going to retire June 8 after 36 years as an industrial arts teacher at Antioch High School. Members of the school board have planned a reception for him from 2 to 4 p.m. in the cafeteria. The many former students and friends of Stillson are invited to attend.

U.S. Rep. Robert McClory was the speaker last week at a meeting of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce. McClory spoke on "Pollution".

Newly elected officers of the Antioch High School student council are: president, Chip Gross; vice-president, Bud Newton; secretary, Ronna Andrews; treasurer, Cheri Dalgaard.

The Antioch chapter of the American Field Service kept its promise of a pleasant evening for all who attended the deluxe dessert buffet Friday in honor of its foreign exchange student, Jeed Rokchartchareon from Thailand.

From Annie Mae . . . did you hear about the people who dutifully turned their clocks ahead Saturday night and then repeated the same on Sunday? It seems they are on double daylight saving time.

Season's here, time to learn boating safety

Safe boating is no accident. Each year in Illinois, persons are injured and killed and thousands of dollars in property losses are incurred by the failure to adhere to, recognize, or practice good safe boating techniques.

To educate the public in boating and safety, the Lake County Sheriff's Dept. Water Patrol administers boating safety courses for interested persons.

The Department has designated volunteer instructors to instruct safety education classes with sessions beginning on Tuesday, May 20. Other sessions will be Wednesday, May 21; and Thursday, May 22. They will be held from 7 to 10 p.m. at Grass Lake Grade School, west of Rte. 59 on Grass Lake Rd. Persons interested in obtaining further information should call 689-6300.

ACHS to present British comedy

The drama department of Antioch Community High School is presenting "The Importance of Being Ernest" by the English playwright Oscar Wilde at 8 p.m. May 8, 9, and 10 and at 2 p.m. May 11 in the high school auditorium.

"The Importance of Being Ernest" directed by Ken Smouse is a masterpiece of brilliant comedy. This is probably the most famous of all the modern artificial comedies. It revolves gaily and wittily around the most ingenious case of "manufactured"; mistaken identity ever put into a play.

Traditionally in England, the part of Lady Bracknell is played by a man, so Antioch High School is following tradition for two performances when the role will be played by Keith Boehm. Jennifer Biel will perform the other two nights. Most major roles are double cast.

Republican federation to hear Louisiana Governor Treen

Louisiana Governor David Treen is expected to attract more than 700 Republicans to the 1980 Campaign Dinner of the Lake County Republican Federation Friday, May 23, at the Holiday Inn, Mundelein.

Dinner Chairman James L. Vincent, chief operating officer of Abbott Laboratories, said Treen has sparked national interest because he is the first Republican governor elected in Louisiana since 1877.

Treen will hold a press conference at the Holiday Inn at 6 p.m., when a reception will get under way. Dinner is set for 7:30 p.m.

Treen was elected in December 1979 and took office March 10. His victory is viewed as a great personal triumph as well as a breakthrough for the Republican Party in Louisiana. Also the first Republican elected to Congress from Louisiana, Treen has served in the U.S. House of Representatives continuously since 1972.

Treen's goals as governor are to achieve electoral reforms and improvements in education. He advocates returning revenue sources now held by the federal government back to the states for education allocation.

Working with Vincent on the sale of patron tickets are Mrs. Susie Meyer and Glenn S. Utt, Jr., Federation vice presidents and co-chairmen of a county-wide patron sales committee. Patron tickets are $125 per person. Dinner tickets are $30. Heading the sale of dinner tickets are County Treasurer Jack (Red) Anderson of Gurnee and Joseph N. Sikes, Grayslake.

The dinner-dance program will feature music by the Cabaret. Decorations are being handled by the Deerfield Republican Women's Club, Shirley Peter, president.

Chairman of the prize committee is federation vice president Bill Brook of Antioch assisted by Marjorie Tylkowski of Grant Township. Other committee chairmen are Marilyn Sterbenz, cocktail tickets; Betty Jane Flood and Ned Fisher, arrangements and Lila Hamann, press conference.

Two firsts, 25 medals at North Chi meet

Antioch High School track team returned from the April 26 North Chicago Warhawk Invitational with a lot of "hardware." In this case the "hardware" consisted of two first place trophies and 25 medals. The "hard" indicates a good showing in the eleven-team meet.

Mike Pramshafer won the triple jump and Robert Otten raced away with the two mile for Antioch's only first places. Greg Stevens threw the discus 128 feet, two inches to place second. Third places were earned by Otten in the 1600 meter run and the 3200 meter relay team of Mike Mattson, Alan Ware, Gary Miller and Greg Bies.

Finishing fourth were Miller in the 1600 meter run, Pramshafer in the long jump and three relay teams. The 400 meter relay team consisted of Rob Stonnard, Mitch Case, Bill Mortys and Pete Jung.

The 800 meter relay team included Stonnard, Case, Prowshafer and Jung. The mile relay team was made up of Paul Grunewald, Kevin Sheahan, Bies and Andy

Fifth place finishers were Jung, in the 200 meter dash. Dugenski in the triple jump, Dale Plecharty in the high jump and Mike Tomany in the pole vault.

Kevin Sheahan took a sixth in the high hurdles.

Antioch's cindermen have a very busy week hosting Stevenson in a conference showdown on April 30, and hosting the eight team Harland Soph Invitational on May 2. On May 3 the team goes to Waukegan's Weiss Field for the county meet.

Kids destroying quiet beauty in memorial park

Incidents in Mill Park have taken a toll on the beauty and memories the park provides, but Antioch officials don't believe the damages that have been done are the result of vandals. "Kids go in there and play not realizing that the park was not built to play in," Antioch Police Chief Chuck Miller noted.

According to him, two trees have been destroyed as a result of knife gouges, and the rock gardens have been tampered with. "The things that have been done are things that kids might do in their own back yard, but the park is a fragile one. People have donated trees, and the beauty is there for the community to enjoy," Miller added.

Miller added that with the warm weather coming up, maybe parents could take a little time to tell their children not to play in that park. "It's a pretty secluded place. Maybe if passers-by see kids playing there they could tell us."

Miller also noted that the police are not looking to make any type of arrest. "We just want the park's beauty to be preserved," he said.

Stolen goods recovered

Antioch Police have recovered eight items, including sentimental valued chalices, that were taken from St. Peter's Catholic Church in Antioch on April 15.

According to police Lt. Tom Fisher, the items, valued at over $2,300, were found in a plastic bag in a field adjacent to the Antioch Upper Grade School. The police acted on an anonymous tip that led to the find.

Fisher stated that the case is still under investigation, as the items will be sent to the crime lab to be dusted for finger prints. He also pointed out that all the items listed stolen on April 15, have been recovered and positively identified by clergy at St. Peter's.

Census jobs still available

Jerry Sosnoski, District Manager for the Census Bureau said that full-time temporary jobs are still available with the Census Bureau. Workers are needed for clerical jobs in the District Office and as Census Takers (enumerators) in the field.

Census takers must be able to follow printed instructions, do simple arithmetic, and read maps for which they will be tested before hiring.

Interested persons should come, ready to take the written job related test at the Antioch Village Hall at either 10 a.m. or 2 p.m. any Monday through May.

Village, Levas win

Levas said. He maintained that items sold in other stores in Antioch could be used as drug paraphernalia.

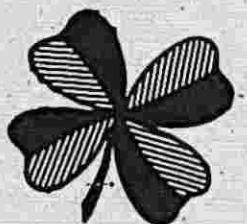

Lynch maintains that the village has the backing of the people. "This is not a personal vendetta. Many people wanted to see this ordinance passed."

The lawsuit against the village is still pending, and according to Levas there is reason for optimism. "This is a vague law. I am very optimistic as to the outcome of the case."

Youth learn about growing

Students in Mrs. Sandy White's second grade class at Antioch Grade School, have been busy learning about the incubation process and different types of fowl eggs. According to Mrs. White, the students start the unit on egg hatching by learning how an incubator works, then learn the parts of the egg and watch the growth process.

"It's very interesting to the children as they can see into the egg and watch the embryo grow," Mrs. White said.

The students use the candling process to observe growth within the egg. By placing the egg over light, in the case of these students using an overhead projector, a black spot can be seen. As the baby chick matures, veins form, and the eye can see the growth.

THE ENTHUSIASM her students show is great. They can tell many facts about the process, such as temperature and light regulations throughout the incubation period. "They both have to stay the same," one student said. Another pointed out the actual time period before eggs hatch. "It takes 28 days for duck eggs to hatch, and 21 for chicken eggs," another youngster told.

Even former students still within the grade school stop in around the time of year her class learns about eggs. "I had a former student bring in some duck eggs for us to work with," the second grade instructor said.

If all goes according to schedule, Antioch Grade should have baby wildlife around May 6.

IN LOVING MEMORY of Greg Huber, who passed away on April 30, 1978. We do not need a special day, to bring you to our minds. The days we do not think of you, are very hard to find. DENTAL IMPLANTS

Dental implantology (inserting a post into the jawbone to act as an anchor for dentures) goes back to the times of the early Egyptians. Mummies and skeletons have been examined, and they indicate that dental implants were attempted even in those days.

A dental implant is a device that supports a single crown, a bridge, or a full denture, when the gums cannot normally retain them. There are two types: one has a metal framework that rests on the jawbone, with the gum tissue closed over it. The other is placed into the bone, like a root of a tooth. Both types have a post or series of posts which protrude through the gum to serve as an anchor.

While implant dentistry is quite complex — and still considered experimental and practiced only by a relatively few experts — it does provide a new approach to denture problems.

Varying degrees of success are reported, but it appears that the percentage of successful cases is directly related to the amount of training and experience of the implantologist.

Emmons registration

Emmons Grade School will hold registration for kindergarten students for the 1980-81 school year during the week of May 5.

Parents may register their kindergartners any time during school hours at the school's office during that week.

Parents must bring a birth, hospital or baptismal certificate at the time of registration. The child must be five on or before Dec. 1.

CLEAN STREAMS

Governor James R. Thompson has proclaimed May as Clean Streams Month marking the fourth consecutive year attention will be focused on pollution of Illinois rivers and streams. The Illinois Department of Conservation and the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (IEPA) will co-sponsor activities during May urging Illinois citizens and local groups to get involved with stream clean-ups and community workshops on water pollution.

Conservationists ready for annual spring count

Volunteers are now being sought for the spring bird count, to be held May 10 by the Illinois Dept. of Conservation.

The spring bird count is an attempt to census all the birds in the state during spring migration, with the aid of volunteer birders from groups like the Illinois Audubon Society, explained Department of Conservation non-game biologist Vernon Kleen.

Volunteers should have some experience in bird identification, Kleen stressed.

Last year over 1,100 birders participated in the spring count, the most ever. Kleen said he expects even more participants this year because more counties, 99, will be covered than in previous years.

Past bird counts have indicated that the most numerous birds in the state at this time of year are the red-winged blackbird and the common grackle. Also making the top 10, and in this order, are: the house sparrow, lesser golden plover, starling, robin, tree swallow, barn swallow, chimney swift and bluejay. Fully 256 species were seen in Illinois last year and over 351,000 individual birds counted.

Results of the census will be computerized and used to spot trends in bird populations. Such information can be important in monitoring endangered species and in formulating environmental impact statements, Kleen noted. To birders, though, it's mainly fun. The Illinois Audubon society publishes the results of the count in its bulletin.

Lake County bird count coordinator is Jim Neal, 2303 Elisha, Zion. Anyone wishing to participate in the count may do so by signing up with the coordinator in Lake County, or by calling the Illinois Dept. of Conservation at 793-2070.

Kelly resigns

that McKinney will maintain a well-run association.

Kelly, who is an active Rotarian, maintained that his new job was a once in a lifetime opportunity and that he was looking forward to the new experience. "I've enjoyed the Antioch community a great deal, and have found great satisfaction in getting involved in organizations. The thing about a small community is that one can see the results of the effort put into projects," Kelly said.

Kelly is married with five children, and will assume his new duties on May 12. He was with the Antioch financial institution for four and one half years.

Girls grab four victories

The Antioch High School girls varsity softball team has been rewarded for having played a game a day for a week, by winning four in a row and upping their Northwest Suburban Conference record to 4-1.

The girls won one and lost two as they played against the state power houses at the Rockford-Harlem Invitational held April 26.

In the first game, the match between Genoa-Kingston was lost in extra innings as the Sequoits led 7-6 in the fourth. The Kingston team tied, then scored two runs in the bottom of the eighth to lock up the win.

Sophomore Tracy Manuel homered in the fourth after Patti Hinz led with a single. Hinz was moved to second base on a sacrifice bunt by Chris Byrne followed by Manuel's homer. Kingston tied the Sequoits in the bottom of the fourth, and each team remained scoreless until the eighth.

FRESHMAN PITCHER Dawn Johnson went the length of the game taking the loss, giving up eight runs on 13 hits and walking five.

The second game matched Antioch with Arlington Heights-Hersey, which turned into a slug-fest for the Antioch girls. Sequoits won 17-1 on 15 hits including one homerun, and three each doubles and triples.

Shelly Wix homered in the first, while Tracy Manuel hit a double and two triples. Byrne hit a double, while pinch-hitter Dee McDonald doubled in the sixth her first time at bat all year. Lorna Whitton hit a triple in the fifth. "Everyone got to play, which is really good experience for the girls," stated head coach Steve Scott.

PITCHER DAWN Johnson went four innings before suffering an injury, and was replaced by Terri Macklin who struck out one and walked three while holding the Hersey team to only two hits, their game total.

Hersey's one run scored on a Sequoit error.

By the third game, the Sequoit's exhaustion was apparent as they lost to Barrington, 12-2. Pitcher Macklin gave up two runs in the first and five each in the second and third. "It was tough schedule. We probably could have given them a better game if we weren't so tired," stated Scott.

The week prior to the tourney saw some close wins—two of them come-from-behind wins. The girls beat Richmond-Burton, 17-12, after committing eight errors, on April 21, and posted a 10-0 conference win at home against Lake Zurich on April 23. Johnson got the shut out giving up only two hits.

Against Round Lake in a make-up game on April 24, the Sequoits came from a 6-2 deficit in the bottom of the seventh to win 7-6.

Wix again hit well, and was the key person in the game hitting a three-run triple. Rounding third, Wix tripped, so couldn't get home. Manuel, pitching in the game, walked, then centerfielder Laura Ogden singled in the tying run.

WITH TWO OUTS AND the bases loaded, Round

Lake pitcher walked the winning run in by walking Whitton.

The following day, the Sequoits had to adjust to the slow pitching of Stevenson, and had to counter a 6-0 Stevenson lead in the third, to win 11-10.

Wix again started things off by hitting a three-run homer in the fifth as the Sequoits had a seven run inning, taking a 7-6 lead.

Stevenson then again took the lead, 10-8, forcing Antioch to get three runs in the top of the seventh to win. The Sequoits did, then held the Patriots in the bottom of that inning.

"We've had some exciting playing over the past week," Scott laughed.

Antioch will face Warren at 4:30 p.m., Wednesday, April 30, at the Antioch Upper Grade. They will face Grant on May 2, both games key conference match ups.

Girls win pair

The Antioch High School frosh-soph softball team lost two and won two games over the past week by winning in Richmond, 17-16, on good hitting from frosh Dawn Trusky and Theresa Weber and sophomore Cathy Blanchette.

The girls posted a loss against Lake Zurich, 13-2, coach Julie Pederson citing poor defensive plays on the Sequoits behalf for eight runs in one inning.

Weber hit first home run of the year in the game.

The Sequoits again lost 22-17 to the Round Lake Panthers, but never gave up as they scored 11 runs in the last inning.

The junior team won its third game of the year against Stevenson. The final 17-14 score was the result of good hitting by Lisa Davis, pitcher Kim Eves, and Jacque Larson.

Sequoits still waiting for first win of season

The Antioch High School Varsity baseball team is struggling to get a mark in the win column for the 1980 season as they suffered four defeats in just as many games.

According to head coach Tom Baba, "we're in a learning situation, and I'm not losing my optimism." The Sequoit's record stands at 0-10 overall, but they have played only two home games.

On April 21, the Sequoits were defeated by Round Lake, 6-5, while they were shut out, 2-0 at Wauconda on April 23. A twin bill at Barrington on April 26 found the Antioch team on the short end again losing 5-4 and 5-0.

"All the games have been quick and low scoring, but we just haven't scored as much as the other teams," stated Baba of his team of only two returning players from last season. "The guys don't seem to have lost their enthusiasm yet," he added.

AGAINST ROUND Lake, the Sequoits came close to catching the Panthers as junior catcher Mark Pomazak homered in the last inning. After a single by Tom Bernert and an error that put Dave Berchtold on, Pomazak homered to bring the score to 6-5. With no outs, the next three batters failed to get on base. Junior pitcher Tim Koesser (0-2) took the loss, while striking out 10. The Sequoits left ten on base.

"It's a case of getting the big hit at the right time," Baba said. "A hit would drive in some of those runners."

Antioch went ahead in the bottom of the second against the Panthers, 2-1, but the Round Lake team rallied with five runs in the third. "They did all their scoring in those two innings," Baba said.

THE BULLDOG'S, Paul Howard got the shutout in the game played on the Wauconda diamond, giving up no extra base hits. Sequoit's Dave Berchtold (0-1) gave up two runs on only six hits and struck out five.

Wauconda scored one run in the fourth off a Dave Henkelman hit and another in the sixth with another hit by Henkelman and a stolen base by Don Bogacz.

In the first game of the doubleheader held at Barrington, Antioch's junior pitcher Terry Dewar (0-3) gave up eight hits to take the loss. Barrington's Bob Trenning gave up 12 Sequoit hits. "They just scored one more run, that's all," Baba commented.

Bernert opened the sixth with a double, followed by another double from junior third baseman, Pete Weber. Koesser singled to bring in Weber, and the game was tied 4-4. The Sequoits posted their best inning with four runs off five hits, but Barrington scored in the bottom of the seventh to win the game.

ANTIOCH ASSUMED the home team role in the second game at Barrington, but Bronco pitcher Dan Hale gave up only three hits while posting eight strike outs. "He's probably their best pitcher. The three hits came in three different innings," Baba said.

Barrington scored three in the first and two in the fifth, while Antioch was no threat at all. Barrington's Dave Mallay was 3-4 with two RBIs. Antioch's Roy Raven (0-2) took the loss.

Barrington plays in the Mid Suburban League and posts an 11-1 record.

The Sequoits travel to Stevenson for a 4:30 p.m., April 30 game.

Wilmot opens season

Dick Colburn, Muskego, Wis., started the 1980 racing season off at Kenosha County Speedway, Wilmot, by winning the 25-lap supermodified feature Saturday night.

ON LAP 11, Colburn took over top spot and held it throughout the remainder of the race, while Fote and Gary Dye battled wheel to

Hain hears discipline expert

Paul Hain, principal of W.C. Petty Elementary School, Antioch, was among nearly 9,000 elementary and middle school principals who attended the national convention of the National Association of Elementary School Principals in Miami Beach. One of the highlights of the convention was a session by noted discipline expert Lee Canter.

Canter believes that teachers must be the boss in their classrooms. Yet he said that "it's more difficult to deal with kids today than ever before. Many kids with serious discipline problems are in regular classrooms," and unfortunately teachers have not been trained in how to deal most effectively with these children.

Canter advocates an assertive discipline approach, an approach he has developed after studying for seven years the classroom techniques of successful teachers. He believes that the key to a successful discipline program is for teachers to develop a specific plan of discipline and follow through with it. "Threats are meaningless, unless the teacher carries them through," Canter stated. "Principals and teachers must always keep in mind that the basis of all discipline is caring — caring enough to set limits for children for their own welfare."

The convention continued through April 23. While in Dade County, many principals visited the area schools to see firsthand some new programs in action.

Workshops were conducted by Rose Piper, of Glendale Heights, State Director of AARP; Dr. Martin Bartels, of DeKalb, a member of the Illinois joint state legislative committee; Carole Aston, assistant area representative; John Wenclawski and Mrs. Aiani.

Some of AARP's outstanding educational programs include tax-aid, a free tax counseling service for the elderly; crime prevention, health and nutrition, widowed persons service support group and an advocacy program in state and federal legislation to help older Americans stretch fixed incomes.

AARP encourages older Americans to remain active in community and public affairs and thus to fulfill the organization's motto of "to serve and not to be served." For the $4 annual dues, AARP members receive magazines, brochures and other materials of special interest to older readers. Members are eligible for a non-profit pharmaceutical service, and discounted rates at leading hotels and car rental agencies that participate in its program.
